NOVELTY - A non-lead welding material with antioxidizing power contains Ag (0.5-5 wt.%), Cu (0-2), P (0.01-1), and Sn (rest). It is possible to contain the mixture of La and Ce (0.01-1). Its advantages are excellent properties in solidified texture, mechanical performance and creep fatigue resistance, and high antioxidizing power.

Good Morning Mr. Ip,
Would you please to check for me claim 17 of case 09/892,630 in condition allowable, I did check with you so many times, and you had helping me to find some good arts.
Claim 17 I did allow this claim from previous Office actions, and the attorney he would take this claim (claim 17) and cancel these others, please help me this claim (claim 17) with your opinion,
Once again thank you very much,
Best
Tommy
